

Bismarck State College: Admissions is still open on campus. Some staff are choosing to work from home. All campus visits are suspended through May 3rd. Virtual tours and zoom meetings can be set up.

Last updated: 3/18/2020

Dakota College at Bottineau: Admissions is still open on campus. Tours are being allowed for local prospects. For those traveling from a distance we are not allowing tours until at least April 6 when we are scheduled to resume classes normally. Residence halls and dining services remain open for students who choose to stay on campus.

Last updated: 3/18/2020

Dickinson State University:

Last updated:

University of Jamestown: Admissions is still open on campus and visitors are welcome at this time. Students who cancel visits will be offered a Zoom meeting and tour. Faculty (who are not on campus) can be Zoomed in to meet with prospective students as necessary. Classes are fully online through Tuesday, April 14th. Residence halls and dining services remain open if students wish to stay with us.

Last updated: 3/18/2020

Lake Region State College:

Last updated:

Mayville State University: Admission is open on campus with a skeleton staff, most offices are working from home. Visitors are still welcome. Zoom visits are also being offered. Preview days have been cancelled. Classes have all moved on-line and will remain there until April 6th depending on the situation. All faculty are working from home.

Last updated: 3/18/2020

Minot State University: Admissions is still open on campus. We have cancelled visits and tours for the week, and all campus visits of 10 or more until April 5th, two weeks after Spring break. Classes are remote until April 5th. We are offering virtual appointments and are actively reaching out to students keeping them up to date.

Last updated: 3/18/2020

North Dakota state College of Science:

Last updated:

North Dakota State University:

Last updated:

University of Mary:

Last updated:

Valley City State University:

Last updated:

Williston State College: Admissions is still open on campus with a skeleton crew. Any personnel that overlooks a department is on campus if possible. Everyone else is required to work from home. Most daycares have closed in Williston which has led

Last updated: